Conveyancing Handbook - New 17th edition

General Editor: Frances Silverman

Consultant Editors: Annette Goss, Russell Hewitson, Peter Reekie, Anne Rodell, Michael Taylor

Join the thousands of practitioners who rely on the Law Society's Conveyancing Handbook to be their first port of call to resolve a vast range of conveyancing queries. Published annually, it provides authoritative and up-to-date guidance on topics from agricultural tenancies to zero-carbon homes.

Written by expert editors and contributors, the 17th edition has been thoroughly revised to take account of developments including:

- the introduction of the Building Societies Association's Mortgage Instructions
- launch of the Land Registry's Portal
- recent legislation, including the Perpetuities and Accumulations Act 2009 and the Equality Act 2010
- new and updated Law Society practice notes, including: gifts of assets, and anti-money laundering
- amendments to the Solicitors Code of Conduct 2007
- increased availability of flood risk information

These developments and more are integrated within a chronological account of conveyancing practice, distilled in procedural checklists, and complemented by extensive appendix materials, making this an indispensable companion for every conveyancer.
